

A: External length.

B: Width of installation hole center point.

C: External width.

D: The distance between the center point of the rear installation hole and the edge.